President's Message for October 2021:

DANCES, JAMS and Dance Lessons Resume !!!!!

Two years ago, we could not imagine a time when we would not be able to hear live music or dance. The last 20 months have been quite an ordeal. With Covid numbers down your Board has agreed it's time to dance again! The Governor's mask mandate expires October 27 and we are having our Halloween Dance October 29 at the UCT Hall. We ask that everyone attending consider their own situation and assess whether or not it's the right time to go to a dance indoors. Mask wearing will be optional but it is Halloween. The band for the dance, Cajun Roots, has agreed to play for no charge. This greatly reduces our financial risk and helps make the dance a reality. A grand 'Merci' to Cajun Roots.

Earlier in the year we scheduled a reopening dance with the internationally known Cajun band Beausoliel but the dance was cancelled due to a rise in Covid cases. The great news is Beausoliel has agreed to play our November 12 dance. This is a once in a lifetime chance to hear this band, in person, in a dancehall environment, in Baton Rouge. Hope everyone can make it.

Our Dance Troup is practicing and meeting again! They also plan to offer dance lessons at the October and November dances. Lynda and David Stockinger are eager to provide this service and request that all participants bring their own partner for the lessons.

We held our first jam in many months on October 17 at the West Baton Museum in Plaquemine, LA. Chad Huval hosted the session and a good time was had by all who attended. The next scheduled jam will be November 21 from 3:00pm to 5:00pm and will be hosted by Wallace Trahan. We welcome musicians and spectators to join us.

We have not solicited dues in over a year and a half. With the dances starting up again we ask that you please consider sending in your $20 family dues for the year 2021-2022. Your membership will be good from now until September 30, 2022. Your annual dues help us pay our annual insurance, operating costs and the cost of printing and mailing the newsletter. You can pay at the dance or mail you check (address in header). Thank you in advance for supporting Cajun music in Baton Rouge.

Merci,
Ken Bueche
